Podcast Talking Points (USA)

Talking points valid from 3/5/26–5/31/26.

Hook: Real growth rarely happens all at once. It begins with a quiet realization. About what we need, what we deserve, or what we're finally ready to change. BetterHelp can help you unpack those realizations and explore them with the support of a licensed therapist.

Choose one prompt to personalize:

- Create Your Own: Share a specific challenge, moment, or realization from your own life related to mental health.
 - Use your content lens to engage with mental health based on what you know about the topic you're covering.
 - Stay in first person (I struggled with, I've seen, I realized, I believe) and include specific details that make it uniquely yours.
- All or Nothing: Take a moment to reflect on a time when you held back from making a change because you felt it had to be all-or-nothing. Maybe you avoided trying a new sport or hobby because you were sure you'd be bad at it. How did that pressure shape your thinking or keep you stuck?
 - Then, consider how taking one small, imperfect step could still create meaningful momentum, and how therapy can offer the support and fresh perspective that help you recognize progress without requiring perfection.
- Boundaries: Think about a relationship that was draining your energy or emotional well-being. What boundary did you finally set, and how did it shift the way you felt within yourself or in that relationship?
 - Then, consider how therapy can help you recognize when boundaries are needed and offer the support and perspective to set them with greater clarity, confidence, and self-trust.
- Breakthrough Moment: Pause to reflect on your biggest breakthrough in therapy. How did it shift the way you see yourself or bring a deeper sense of clarity or peace into your life?
 - Then, consider how therapy creates space for these moments, offering expert support and fresh perspectives that help you understand yourself in ways you might not reach on your own.
